

Agenda

(Opportunities for Q&A will be provided at the conclusion of each presentation)

Registration and Continental Breakfast 8:00 am - 8:45 am

Introductory Remarks 8:45 am - 9:00 am

Jed E. Rose, PhD

Edward D. Levin, PhD

Jed E. Rose, PhD 9:00 am - 9:30 am

“Nicotine Modulation of Pain and Stress: the Interplay of Central and Peripheral Nervous System Actions”

M. Imad Damaj, PhD 9:30 am - 10:00 am

“Pain and Nicotine Dependence: Preclinical Research Findings and Mechanistic Considerations”

Olivier George, PhD 10:00 am - 10:30 am

“Neurobiology of Nicotine Dependence: A Multilevel Framework for the Dark Side of Addiction”

Morning Break 10:30 am - 10:45 am

Joseph W. Ditre, PhD 10:45 am - 11:15 am

“A Reciprocal Model of Pain and Nicotine/Tobacco Use: Emerging Research and Future Directions”

Agenda

David G. Gilbert, PhD 11:15 am - 11:45 am

“Smoking Abstinence Symptoms: Do They Resolve? Not in 67 Days!”

Interim Discussion 11:45 am - 12:15 pm

Lunch 12:15 pm - 1:30 pm

Jessica Cook, PhD 1:30 pm - 2:00 pm

“Role of Anhedonia in Smoking Motivation”

A. Eden Evins, MD 2:00 pm - 2:30 pm

“Smoking Cessation in People with Serious Mental Illness”

Ed Levin, PhD 2:30 pm - 3:00 pm

“Analgesic and Antidepressant Medication to Combat Nicotine Self-administration in Rats”

Round Table Discussion 3:00 pm - 4:15 pm

Concluding Remarks 4:15 pm - 4:30 pm

Jed E. Rose, PhD

Edward D. Levin, PhD